Subject: Standard Purchasing Resolution 2 – Award to Low Bidder Meeting Specifications – Patrol Rifle – Police Department

History

- Patrol rifles have become the standard in law enforcement for situations requiring a response to critical incidents such as active shooters.
- Properly equipped patrol rifles are tactically superior in regards to accuracy and ammunition capability.
- The rifles currently in service are equipped with the minimum basic accessories including factory installed iron sights and only a few have mounted light systems.
- Currently the Troy Police Department has equipped their officers since 2007.
- The rifles are pool weapons which are shared by all officers.
- Troy Police Department currently has (56) Smith & Wesson M&P15 rifles assigned to the Operations Division which are approximately 15 years old and have reached their end of life.
- Troy Police Department is looking to purchase (45) new rifles and trade-in the (56) 15-year-old rifles. Downsized due to the departments individual rifle purchase program.
