Sgt. Lehman,

I wanted you to be aware of an incident that occurred at the Trunk and Treat (10/2019) at the front of the police station. I am hoping that this email finds its way to the correct parties involved. The evening of the Trunk and Treat, a young girl became separated from her family near the entrance to the parking circle. I was walking by and observed the young girl frantically looking around to find them. I approached her, identified myself, and advised her that I would help her locate her family. A Troy FD Explorer (young female) was stationed in the area (near the badge / the radio station tent). The Explorer was able to provide a good description of the mother of the child. Moments later the missing child's mother appeared through the crowd to collect her daughter. If it was not for the keen eyes of this FD Explorer we would not have had any information/clothing description of a parent. I thanked the Explorer on the scene for her assistance and vigilance. I would also like if her superiors were also aware of this incident.

Thank you for your time.
