G. CITY COUNCIL/CITY ADMINISTRATION RESPONSE/REPLY TO PUBLIC COMMENT FOR ITEMS ON THE AGENDA FROM TROY RESIDENTS AND BUSINESSES:

Mayor Baker requested an update on the power outage at the Library. Public Works Director Bovensiep commented that the power line that failed at the Library was installed around 1984, and the failure was not predictable. He said that the City owns the line, so DTE was unable to provide assistance and was unwilling to act quickly to resolve the issue. He said that work is ongoing to attempt to correct the issue while using the existing line, and hopefully by mid to late next week, the Library should be back online with DTE power. He said that the generator is working to provide power to the Library, and any future Library building would include a DTE-owned line in order to avoid these delays and issues with repairs.
