

PROCLAMATION TO CELEBRATE
TROY HIGH STUDENT REAGAN CHOI
ON EARNING A PERFECT SCORE ON AP PHYSICS EXAM

WHEREAS, Reagan Choi is currently a senior at Troy High School preparing to complete his high school education in a few months and applying to colleges; and

WHEREAS, Reagan took a number of Advanced Placement Tests at the end of his junior year including the AP Physics-C Mechanics Test. Every student knows that Advanced Placement Tests are extremely difficult and require years of study in order to do well to get that coveted five points; and

WHEREAS, When Reagan received the email that he had received a perfect score in the AP Physics-C Mechanics exam taken last May, it didn't quite seem real; he was completely surprised as it's easy to make a small mistake in the multiple choice or free response; and

WHEREAS, Reagan was excited about receiving a score of five and never even considered it a possibility that he would achieve a perfect score and that he would be one of only two students out of 49,317 students in the WORLD to achieve a perfect score; and

WHEREAS, Reagan credits his teachers and education from the Troy School District for helping him achieve this milestone. Brian Glynn (AP Physics C) and William Hevel (Physics 1) not only taught physics well but made it enjoyable by adding humor and communicating with their students. Reagan said his teachers inspired him to continue studying for physics competitions and learn beyond the classroom level; and

WHEREAS, Reagan hopes to attend MIT for college and since he enjoys math and computer science as much as physics, he plans to study a combination of these disciplines in college;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and City Council of the City of Troy hereby congratulate Reagan Choi on his accomplishment in scoring a perfect score on the AP Physics Exam and for being one of only two students out of 49,317 students in the WORLD to achieve a perfect score; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and City Council of the City of Troy invite all residents to celebrate Reagan Choi's achievement, wish him much success in all future endeavors, and thank him for being a great role model for our community.
